Yesterday the police made a thorough search for Henry Kapea, who is wanted for an alleged embezziement of $100 from the Hawaiian Trust Company, of which firm he was an employe. The search was continued today but still only few traces have been found view of the few clues which have been discovered, that Kapea took "French leave" by the steamship China, which left for the Orient last Saturday after-

Detective McDuffle, who has been detailed on the case, has discovered several facts which seem to confirm this theory. Manager Galt of the Hawaiian Trust Company Interviewed Kapea on Saturday morning and on hat occasion let the young man know that he would be criminally prosecu o'clock Saturday afternoon Kapea met girl named Annie Konia, with whom ne was on a very friendly Kapea gave her a picture of himself, telling her she was not likely ever to ee him again.

At 4 o'clock the same afternoon,

McDuffle finds that at about 1

ments after that hour.

Kapea's words to the young lady are ambiguous, as they might indicate that he contemplated suicide, as stated in the letter which Kapea wrote to his friend Dunn. It might also mean that he thought of leaving the Territory. However, the purchase of clothing speaks much in favor of the latter
